President Is Meeting With Top Advisors At Camp David

President Eisenhower left his farm shortly after one o'clock today by car to preside at a National Security Council meeting scheduled for 2:30 p.m. at Laurel Lodge, Camp David, near Thurmont, Md. The President was accompanied by Allan Dulles, chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Col. Andrew Goodpaster, White House staff secretary. Today's meeting marked the President's first session with the NSC since before his September 24 heart attack.

Dictates Letters

The President spent part of the morning dictating letters at his office in the local post office where he arrived about 9:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Eisenhower left the farm a short time before that for Washington where she planned to remain overnight attending to some housekeeping duties at the White House.

Following the meeting with the NSC, the President will remain at Camp David overnight for a Tuesday meeting at 9 o'clock with his Cabinet which some of the NSC members will attend.

The National Security Council consists of the President, Vice President, Secretary of States Dulles, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Director of Defense Mobilization Arthur S. Fleming.

A long list of top presidential advisors will sit in on today's session. They will include Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey, Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes, Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Theodore C. Streibert, director of the United States Information Agency; Harold Stassen, assistant to the President on disarmament matters; Under Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr., and John Hollister, director of the International Co-operation Administration.

Military Chiefs Due

Also Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force Chief of Staff, representing Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency; Assistant Secretary of State Robert R. Bowie; Dillon Anderson, Presidential Assistant for security affairs; Joseph M. Dodge, White House assistant on foreign economic policy; Nelson Rockefeller, presidential assistant for psychological strategy planning; Col. Andrew Goodpaster, secretary of the White House staff; James S. Lay Jr., executive secretary of the NSC, and his deputy S. Everett Gleason, and Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's chief assistant.

In addition to its members, the Cabinet meeting will be attended by Flemming, Hughes, Stassen, Col. Goodpaster, Hagerty and Adams.

The historic—but secret—meetings are expected to mark, dramatically, the President's reassumption of full control of the government, only a week after he had begun an extended convalescence stay on his 496-acre Gettysburg farm.

Vice President Nixon has been presiding at Cabinet and National Security Council sessions in Mr. Eisenhower's absence.

In outlining plans for the Monday and Tuesday sessions, Hagerty said the President and those attending today's NSC meeting who must also be present for the Tuesday Cabinet meeting will spend Monday night in the camp's comfortably arranged cottages.

Because matters considered by the Cabinet and the NSC, which is the President's personal advisory body on security and planning, are never publicly divulged, Hagerty would not reveal the purpose of the sessions.

Full Agenda

It was understood, however, that the Administration leaders will review with Mr. Eisenhower a wide range of international and domestic problems and policies, including those stemming from the failure of the Geneva Foreign Ministers' conference.

$1,150 Damage To Two Cars In Crash

Damages totaling $1,150 resulted from an accident east of Abbottstown on Rt. 30 at 2:05 p.m. Saturday, State Police reported.

Officers said that a car being driven west by Eugene B. Eckert, 32, Lincoln Square, attempted to pass a machine operated by Thurman F. Hyder, 40, when the Hyder vehicle made a sudden left turn into a side road and collided with the Eckert car. The impact forced the Eckert machine to the south side of the highway where it struck and severed a utility pole, police added.

Station Wagon Is Damaged In Mishap

The WGET station wagon was demolished Saturday evening about 9:30 o'clock and the manager of the station, Parker H. Cunningham, Hay St., suffered lacerations above the left eye and under the chin when the vehicle skidded off the Lincoln Highway about two miles east of here.

State police, who investigated, said Cunningham, driving west, came upon a car too fast, and sought to apply his brakes and turn to the left to avoid the vehicle. The station wagon skidded on the snow and went across the highway, smashed through a guard rail and went down a 12-foot embankment.

A charge of driving too fast for conditions will be placed against Cunningham by police. He was treated by Dr. Roy W. Gifford.

Damage to the station wagon was estimated at $400.

DR. R. L. BLOOM SPEAKS TO SUV AT DINNER HERE

"Lincoln reached his greatest heights when he came to Gettysburg 92 years ago," Dr. Robert L. Bloom, associate professor of history at Gettysburg College, said Saturday night in an address at the Hotel Gettysburg. He spoke at the 25th annual banquet of the Past Commanders and the Past Presidents Association of the Sons of Union Veterans commemorating the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery.

"We wonder why there was not more immediate recognition of Lincoln's Gettysburg address as the supreme oratorical effort of Lincoln's life," Dr. Bloom said. "It is almost a poem. This is no whipping up of emotions, this is no call to revenge. It is not a war address, nor a Union address. It is an American address."

"Lincoln had used the phrase 87 years ago in a brief talk at Washington before coming to Gettysburg and he thought the use of words since the founding of the nation" inept and so at Gettysburg he substituted the more literary "Four score and seven years ago."

He knew the founding fathers had been engaged not only in fighting war, but in organizing a nation and there was question of which was more difficult.

Product Of Frontier

"He knew well the 'inalienable rights' of which the founding fathers spoke. Lincoln had been profoundly concerned with these rights. He was a product of the frontier where freedom was born. His training and upbringing had been based on the belief of liberty for all. For him life without liberty was meaningless. Abraham Lincoln was the embodiment of the age of enlightenment," as it is known, when men yearned most for freedom. He was not just stating historical fact at Gettysburg, he was probing the depths of his own beliefs.

"There are those who would call the Civil War, the War between the States or the War of the Secession. But that was not right. Lincoln thought of it as a Civil War, and that is what it was.

"Only if the Confederacy had overthrown the authority of the na-

CIVIC COUNCIL TO ASK WOMEN FOR XMAS FUNDS

The Women's Civic Council of Gettysburg will solicit the financial support of the women of the town and surrounding areas for the street Christmas decorations. The decision was made at a recent meeting in the YWCA.

The opinion was expressed "that since the town's decorations are a part of the family Christmas and that since President Eisenhower's family will be part of the town Christmas this year, the women ought to do all they can to make this a project of which we need not be ashamed."

Contributions of organizations and individuals may be given to the Retail Merchants Association at Pitzer's Tailor Shop, Chambersburg St., or mailed to Frank Howser.

Officers Elected

The following officers were elected for the year beginning January 1: President: Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler; vice president, Mrs. Pearl Wiser; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Walter Coleman. The first two were re-elected Miss Anne Faber, present secretary-treasurer, was not eligible for re-election as her organizational term expired during the year. She was continued in office until the end of this year. Mrs. Charles W. Spriggs presided at the election.

Mrs. Wiser reported on the November meeting of Town Council. Mrs. Earl E. Ziegler, Mrs. Spriggs and Mrs. Cole reported on the educational meeting held on November 1st.

Mrs. Lee Hartman, Miss Martha Lentz and Mrs. Spriggs were appointed to audit the treasurer's books.

Commended Organization

The President commended the following organizations for having perfect attendance at Council sessions during the year — Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Business and Professional Women's Club, Adams County Fish and Game Auxiliary, St. Francis Xavier Mother's Club and the Y.W.C.A. Three groups had representation at all but one meeting — American Legion Auxiliary, Soroptimist Club and the Woman's Club. Appreciation was also expressed by the president "for the splendid co-operation of officers and members during the year."

Following the business session Walter Lane showed the film "Gettysburg." He also spoke to the women of the importance of "selling" Gettysburg to the world and stated that "it was the opinion of the Gettysburg Travel Council that if enough copies of this film could be purchased locally and loaned out on request many more people would come to Gettysburg."

The next meeting will be held on January 20.

SMALL CROWD

(Continued from Page 1) may be guided by its ideals and principles. It is the epitome of Lincoln's faith as he met the challenge of crisis in his day and it is the inspiration of our faith and patriotism in order to meet the crisis of our own times."

Parade Is Abandoned

Chester S. Shriner, junior vice commander of the Pennsylvania Department of the Sons of Union Veterans, opened the program at the cyclorama. C. H. Martin, Lancaster, who had been re-elected president of the Lincoln Fellowship at a luncheon meeting in the Hotel Gettysburg prior to the cyclorama service, was master of ceremonies. Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church, gave the invocation. Following Dr. Heathcote's talk former Gettysburg Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Dr. H. M. J. Klein, professor emeritus of history at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, gave the benediction. The group moved to the cyclorama in cars, abandoning plans for a parade because of the weather.

Other officers re-elected by the Fellowship included Dr. Frederick Tilberg, historian for the Gettysburg National Park, vice president, and Miles Kleffer, Manheim, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, park superintendent and past president of the Fellowship, was presented with copies of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address translated by the faculty of Franklin and Marshall College into seven languages. He was asked to forward the copies to President Eisenhower. The Lincoln Fellowship hopes the translations can be delivered over the Voice of America to the countries listed. The speech has been translated into Russian, Hungarian, French, Spanish, German, Greek and Italian. Mary Lou Martin, Lancaster, delivered Lincoln's Address at the dinner.

COUNTIAN ARRESTED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Francis "Dutch" Shultz, Gettysburg R. 2, was arrested this morning by Constable Leo Riley on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore on complaint of Monroe Smelser, Arendtsville. Following arrangement on the assault and battery charge, Shultz was released on his own recognizance to appear for a hearing before Baschore Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Smelser alleges that Shultz hit him "on the face and body" Thursday evening when Smelser went to the Shultz home to repossess a television set. Shultz and the Misses

STAGE DRIVE TO NIP SABOTEURS

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Argentine government of Provisional President Pedro Aramburu moved into its second week today with an apparent drive under way to nip any plots by disgruntled generals.

A tank and an armored car took up positions behind the government house after authoritative reports that the new regime had put three of Argentina's best known generals. These reports said the government planned to ease a fourth officer out of the country with an ambassadorship.

The tank and armored car, bristling machine guns and cannon were the only extraordinary security measures evident, however.

2 Generals Are Arrested

Authoritative sources said Gen. Leon Justo Bengoa and Gen. Juan Jose Uranga were arrested by soldiers yesterday. They said Lt. Gen. Julio A. Lagos, army commander in chief, had been "convinced" that he should ask for retirement. It also was reported that Gen. Dalmiro Videl Balaguer, present federal administrator of Cordoba province, might be named ambassador toador to Italy.

Informants said all were believed connected with a "rightist" group which Aramburu and his supporters charged had assumed too much control in the Lonardi government.

tion could it have been a war between States. Lincoln called for troops to put down an insurrection and that is what it was — Civil War.

Popular Government At Stake
"In observing here that we were testing whether a nation such as ours could long endure, Lincoln was alert to the fact that the life of popular government throughout the world was at stake. Europe had long regarded the experiment of government in the United States, some nations hoping it would succeed, others hoping it would fail.

Lincoln knew that one of our nation's most difficult tasks was to prevent European nations from recognizing the Confederacy. "Gettysburg was the greatest battle of the Civil War, and the Civil War was the greatest war of the 19th century. From the Union standpoint Gettysburg was the turning point, the spot at which the Union army came of age, just as Vicksburg, the same week, marked the beginning of the decline of the Confederacy as a military power.

"But more important Gettysburg symbolizes freedom for the American nation, the last hope for the world. Lincoln knew that the matter was one of world importance, not only of national importance. The men who had offered their all here, had offered their all for all mankind. The Gettysburg address thus was an appeal to all, the North and South, and all generations. It was a notice that the Union was pouring out its treasure of men and money for more than a legal abstraction, it was giving its men and its money for all mankind."

Col. Frederic Gilbert Bauer, Woodbridge, N. J., commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans told the group, "we are the oldest strictly hereditary society organized on a national basis. We were organized in 1861, when those who were eligible were scarcely more than 15 years of age. The Civil War had been a war of young men on both sides. The sons of veterans were boys; they helped put out the flag on Memorial day and they formed a military type organization and paraded and helped the GAR. Now the Sons of Veterans as an organization is nearly 75 years old, yet we are still doing much of what we did when we were but a group of boys."

"So many men have seen service in recent years that the uniform holds little appeal today. We formed a great number of small camps, one for each camp of the GAR. We engaged in ritualistic work. Today we must revise our approach. We want men who are not only descendants but of whom we can be proud, men of quality. We should join our small camps into larger camps, so that we can do more for today. If we are to care for the heritage of yesterday, we must be more active with the things of today."

A letter to Mrs. Lulu Strausbaugh, general chairman for the banquet program, was read. The letter said, "Mrs. Eisenhower and I are very grateful for your thoughtfulness in inviting us to attend the 25th anniversary banquet of the Past Commanders and Presidents Association of the Sons of Union Veterans. We regret we cannot be with you. I feel I must obey my physicians and curtail my activities for the time being. Dwight D. Eisenhower."

John H. Runkel, Harrisburg, past commander in chief of the Sons of Union Veterans, introduced the toastmaster, Chester S. Shriver, Gettysburg R. D., vice commander of the Pennsylvania department of the Sons of Union Veterans. Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox gave the invocation and benediction. Giold Long, Lancaster, president of the association, gave the address of welcome. Charles B. Crossley, Harrisburg, past president of the association led the group in Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Greetings were brought by Mrs. Minnie Reisinger, York, department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans; William C. Jones, Pittsburgh, department commander of the Sons of Union Veterans; Mrs. Elizabeth Koch, Prospect Park, past president of the Ladies of the GAR, and Mrs. Kathleen Runkle, Harrisburg, past president of the Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans. A film on Gettysburg was shown by Dr. Frederick Tilberg.

Allen W. Dulles, the nation's intelligence chief, flew to Gettysburg before today's meeting so he may brief the President on the latest foreign intelligence reports while motoring with him to Camp David.

While the NSC has never met before at Camp David, the Cabinet did hold a session there last spring prior to an outing for Cabinet members and their families. Hagerty said.

Hagerty said the camp was chosen for the meeting because Mr. Eisenhower's farm is not big enough and there is no conference room large enough to accommodate those who will attend these meetings. In addition Hagerty said that Camp David, which is maintained as a military installation by the Navy, will provide ample security for the President and his advisors. In addition to the Present's secret service detail, the security force includes Marine guards.

A few of the President's golfing and bridge-playing friends were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower over the weekend indoors. There were, Hagerty said, W. Alton Jones, of New York, president of Cities Service Corp., and Mrs. Jones; William E. Robinson, of New York, president of the Coca-Cola Co., and Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme commander of NATO forces.

Hagerty also disclosed and exchanged notes between President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Nehru of India. Eisenhower, the notes revealed, congratulated the India leader on his 66th birthday November 14 praising "remarkable and devoted leadership" in which the people "of your country are participating in a most successful experiment in democracy."

Nehru's reply expressed happiness over the President's progress toward recovery and said "we look forward" to his "leadership in the future."

Eisenhower toured his farm in a midget-type car yesterday, a snowy Sunday that gave the battlefield landscape a Christmas card look.

Mason was charged with "drawing" a hunting knife when employees of Knouse Foods attempted to eject him after he had allegedly caused a disturbance.

David J. O'Keefe, Hanover, found guilty on an involuntary manslaughter charge by a jury last week, was sentenced to four months in jail and ordered to pay the costs. A car he was operating struck a motorcycle at Cross Keys, and a passenger on the motorcycle was fatally injured.

Mark L. Arentz, charged with operating after suspension, was given a suspended sentence, and ordered to pay $150 for use of the county and the costs.

Ray M. Kump, Biglerville R. 1, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for one year on condition to pay $150 for use of the county and the costs on a charge of contribution to the delinquency of minors. Lewis B. Smith, 104 Cemetery St. Littlestown, charged with operating after suspension, was given a suspended sentence and ordered to pay $150 for the use of the county and the costs.

Willis Biery, Fairfield R. 1, found guilty on a surety of the peace charge, was ordered to post a bond of $500 and pay the costs. On a malicious mischief to property charge he was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for one year on condition he pay the costs and stay away from his wife's dwelling. Arrangements were to be made for him to see his children.

Ronald R. Landis, Cashtown, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and ordered to pay $50 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of driving while under the influence.

Jacob H. Snyder Jr., Gettysburg R. 4, was given a suspended sentence and ordered to pay $150 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of driving while his license was suspended.

The charge of assault and battery brought against Robert W. Baughman, Littlestown R. 2, was dropped upon payment of costs.

David B. Wantz, Gettysburg R. 1, was sentenced to 15 days in jail and was ordered to pay $50 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of hit and run driving.

Lester Tyler, Fairfield R. D., on morals charges, was ordered to pay $100 for use of the county, the costs and $5 per week for the support of a child, beginning as of November 4. He was also directed to post $500 bond to guarantee compliance with the order.

Anniversary Party Held In Littlestown

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Waltman, 569 Glenwyn Drive, Littlestown, were honored on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary at a surprise party held in the recreation room of their home on Saturday evening. The affair was arranged by their child, Mrs. Curtis H. Briel, Harrisburg; Miss Barbara Waltman, Washington, D. C.; Gary, Keith and Jeffrey, at home; assisted by Mrs. Waltman's sister, Mrs. Nevin Myers, Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Waltman were married on November 22, 1930, by the Rev. H. D. Shiffer in the Evangelical and Reformed Church, Frederick, Md. She was the former Mildred B. Hyser, daughter of the late Erwin and Mary (McGulgan) Hyser. He is the son of the late Stuart and Elsie (Miller) Waltman. Mr. Waltman is the office manager at the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry Company, Inc.

The room was decorated in a silver, pink and white color scheme. The decorations included a large decorated cake, cut flowers and candies. Refreshments were served to approximately 50 guests present from Washington, Gettysburg, Hanover and Littlestown.

Aims At Wife, Shoots 2-Year-Old Daughter

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Police have arrested Charles Bacon, 22, on charges of shooting his two-year-old daughter at their Chester home.

Police said the shooting occurred yesterday during an argument in which Bacon threatened his wife, Virginia, 38, with a revolver. Fearing for the safety of the child, the mother picked her up as Bacon fired two shots, police said.

Little Charlotte was hit in both ankles. Mrs. Bacon carried her to Chester Hospital where she was admitted. Police seized Bacon in a nearby apartment.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

News From Europe: The foreign news received during the past week is not of stirring importance. It is not thought likely that any further operations will take place in the Crimea this season. A story had become prevalent throughout England that Mr. Buchanan had demanded his passports, and that war with America would follow. Considerable alarm was created thereby, but Mr. Buchanan promptly contradicted the story. Breadstuffs were a trifle lower.

The Fair: Meeting Of The Ladies
—A meeting of the Ladies of the Borough was held in McConaughy's Hall on Monday evening, to consult upon the propriety of getting up a Fair to secure a good walk to the Cemetery. Mrs. H. J. Stahle was called to the Chair, and Miss Margarette McClellan appointed Secretary. After an interchange of views, it was resolved to hold Fair, the proceeds to be applied to procuring a good, permanent and shaded walk to the Cemetery grounds, and that the Ladies of Gettysburg be requested to participate.

On motion to appoint an Executive Committee of two ladies from each Congregation, to further the purpose of the meeting, the following ladies were named: — Mrs. Robert Horner, Miss Annie Fahnestock, Mrs. John Winebrenner, Miss Annie Danner, Mrs. D. A. Buehler, Miss C. E. Fahnestock, Mrs. J. L. Schick, Miss Sallie Paxton, Mrs. Peter Weikert, Miss Louisa Gillespie, Miss Bell Thompson and Miss Annie Runkle.

Adjourned Meeting — Over fifty ladies were present at the adjourned meeting on Wednesday afternoon. Permanent officers were elected. President, Mrs. R. G. Harper; Vice President, Mrs. E. Little; Secretary, Miss Marie Walter; Treasurer, Miss Matilda Gillespie.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
LOVE THAT JOB

There is no medicine that promotes strength, good cheer and happiness as work does. Be it ever so humble, work is what keeps us in the mood for better and better experiences. So, if you have a job, stick to it, and keep getting more efficient, and that job will grow by leaps and bounds!

One reason why so many complain about their ill luck is that they do not love the jobs they have. Through life we all have unpleasant things to do—in the line of duty—but each one serves greater than we know at the time. Most of our leaders rose from what their mind and hands tell in their youth, with plenty of dreams to guide them to bigger things. One of the most inspiring figures in the world today is Herbert Hoover. I listened with the greatest of interest to an interview with him on a recent TV program when he told of his early struggles and his climb to worldwide usefulness. He was never afraid to use his hands in his youth, fighting for everything that put him a little higher all the time.

Elbert Hubbard once said: "Happy is the man who has found his work." It isn't the compensation that comes to a worker that is the most important, but the satisfaction he gets out of his job. Bigness isn't in dollars. It's in character and usefulness. Discontent is all right if you have your eye on a bigger and better job!

I was very much interested in reading the book about the Eisenhower brothers. In their youth each one worked, and all have made notable success of themselves. One, our beloved President.

We gain from life no more than we put into it, but if what we put in comes from the mind and heart we are a success, no matter what the material compensation may prove to be. No medicine or vitamin has ever equalled the love you put into your job!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will speak on the subject: "Flight."

Just Folks

THE BOASTFUL BORE
I do not mind the mind the man who brags about his kin and kin. Although I think his family was good to him in.

I do not mind the braggart who proclaims his youngster's worth. For boastful parents have found the finest folks on earth.

But, oh, protect me from the man who swells his chest to tell How someone else has failed where he'd have really done it well.

I can abide the man who boasts a little of his skill,

With patience I will hear the man who speaks with honest pride Of what he gives to charity, if truth is on his side.

But I confess I try to shun the man, who'er he be.

Who claims that no one else on earth knows quite so much as he.

It is a natural trait to brag; all do it more or less.

Though what we are and what we do is proved by our success. And I can patient be with men whose worth all people know The while they readily admit Each flattering speech is so.

But, oh, defend me from the man who lets his boasting run When someone else has tried, and failed, to tell what he'd have done.

KEFAUVER IS EXPECTED READY FOR BIG BATTLE

By JACK BELL

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee apparently is going to assay a "giant killer" role in a battle with Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois for the 1956 Democratic nomination.

Friends who participated in a three-day party rally which wound up here this weekend reported Kefauver has firm pledges for more than $200,000 in campaign funds and is almost certain to take the plunge into the contest next month.

This would pit him directly against Stevenson, the 1952 nominee who is running again, while Gov. Averell Harriman of New York waits watchfully on the flanks for any sign of a stalemate.

Stevenson Is Favored

Stevenson, who formally announced his candidacy last week, appeared to have been installed as an odds-on favorite for the nomination by members of the national committee and state chairmen who have most to do with the selection of next year's convention delegate slate.

Harriman, who said he has an "understanding" with Stevenson on which he wouldn't elaborate, said he doesn't agree that the Democrats ought to pick a "moderate" candidate or write a "middle-of-the-road" platform. He said he subscribes to former President Harry S. Truman's view that the party must bear a "liberal" label if it hopes to win the presidency and Congress next year.

Truman said Stevenson "made the best New Deal speech I ever heard" at Saturday night's $100-a-table dinner, which wound up the party rally.

Speech Called "Bunk"

Commenting in Washington on Stevenson's speech, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, Leonard W. Hall, said the attack on the Eisenhower administration was "bunk."

Stevenson, said Hall, "made it clear why he was repudiated by the voters so completely in 1952 that he could carry only nine states."

Stevenson told the 2,800 Democrats that "special interest" Republicans offer the country nothing but an uneasy peace, shaky prosperity and stagnation.

He said the cold war "is still in a deep freeze" despite President Eisenhower's efforts. He said the economy of 20 million Americans on farms is "sinking."

Kefauver called the conduct of foreign policy by the Eisenhower administration a "failure." He charged it is "the deliberate policy of the Eisenhower administration to liquidate the small farmers of this nation."

Truman sailed into the administration's handling of international problems, declaring that the Republican tactics "have lost us every friend we have in the world."

Bullets Romp Through Snow And Mud For Easy 46-0 Win Over Diplomats In Final Tilt

Neither snow, nor mud, nor the Franklin and Marshall College gridiron could deter the Gettysburg College Bullets from closing their football season in a blaze of glory here Saturday afternoon as Coach Johnny Yovicsin's lads romped to an easy 46-0 victory over the visitors before approximately 2,500 fans who braved the elements.

Among the 16 seniors who took part in their final game of their careers, Sheldon Yingst, star center for the past three seasons, put on one of his finest performances. He recovered one fumble, intercepted a pass and turned in another brilliant all-around performance throughout.

Bruce Pieper, another senior, tallied a pair of touchdowns and piled up 100 yards on but five carries.

The Diplomats threatened but once, that coming two plays after the kickoff when Jim Neese recovered a Bullet fumble on the Gettysburg 45. The visitors picked up a first down before the Bullets braced to force Dick Pohner to punt into the end zone.

30-Yard Drive

Taking over on their own 20, the Bullets marched 80 yards for their first score. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard run by Pieper who lateralized to Art Hendley who raced 15 more to the Diplomats' 30. Age ripping through for two first downs, Jim Soltesz, substituting for the injured Frank Gagliardi, 17th senior on the squad, went over on a plunge from the 1. Soltesz booted the point.

Yingst Intercepts

Yingst intercepted a pass by Powell on the Diplomats' 35 to pave the way for a score in the second period. Soltesz fired a pass to Capitani on the 20 and he reached the 10 before being dropped. Another pass, Soltesz to Pieper, produced the score. Soltesz kicked his third straight extra point.

Gettysburg's next score in the third quarter followed a recovered fumble by Yingst on the F. and M. 35. Pieper streaked to the 5 on his first try and then shot through right tackle for the tally. Soltesz made it 28-0 with another placement.

The Bullets marched 57 yards for their fifth six-pointer, Mike Duka finally crashing over from the 2.

In the final period Dave Lichtenfeld snarled a pass thrown by Powell and raced from the F. and M. 31 to the 5 before being hauled down. On the next play Bill Morrow, also a senior, smashed over.

Graybill Recovers

The final score of the afternoon was set up when Dave Graybill, sub center, pounced on a fumble on the visitors' 27. The Bullets were set back 15 yards on a penalty but Ronne Brandt picked up 19 yards on a Statue of Liberty play. From the 26 Bob Lebo took a pitchout and went the rest of the way.

As a result of the victory the Bullets wound up their campaign with an enviable 6-2 record. The Diplomats finished with a 2-6 mark.

29th Bullet Win

It was the fifth straight victory for Gettysburg over F. and M. and the 29th in the long series which started in 1890. The Diplomats have 24 wins while five games ended in ties.

COLLEGES CLOSE SEASON IN SNOW, UPSETS SUCCESS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nearly all Pennsylvania colleges finished their 1955 campaigns on the gridiron this weekend, three of them with notable success and a number amid white and chilly reminders that the season for football was about over anyway.

The big successes belong to two little fellows, Drexel Institute of Technology and Juniata College, and one bigger eleven—the once again mighty Panthers from the University of Pittsburgh.

Pitt stepped on the University of West Virginia two weeks ago and shutout Penn State and its Lennie Moore, 20-0, this weekend in a fashion that may have earned a trip South, perhaps to the Sugar Bowl.

Those receiving honorable mention included: Joe Poist, end; Charles Gift, center; Don McKenrick, and John Washington, backs.

3 Delone Players Selected To First Team Of Central Penn All-Catholic League

Three Delone Catholic High School football players were named to the first team, four to the second team and four received honorable mention in selections for the Central Penn All-Catholic Conference made by coaches of the teams.

Tom Smith, tackle; Burnell Bevenour, end, and Larry Little, back, were the Squires gaining positions on the first team.

Second team selections included Bob McMaster, guard; Dick Smith, center; Carroll Funk, quarterback, and Al Neiderer, back.

Coaches participating in the balloting included Tony Cernagle, Harrisburg; Alex Bell, Delone; John Sinkovitz, York, and Gene Kruis, Lancaster.

To keep things intact, Junia plowed five inches of snow and 32 points on Ursinus Saturday, 38-6.

In one of the state's big traditional games, Lafayette surprisingly crushed Lehigh, 35-6.

Title But No Score

Bloomsburg State Teachers College had a close call against Lock Haven with the Teachers' Conference title at stake and at least a tie necessary for Bloomsburg to assume the championship. They got both the tie a scoreless one, and the title.

Two other teams that turned in their most successful campaigns in a long while were Moravian College and the University of Scranton. Moravian romped over Wilkes College Saturday to conclude a season of six wins, one tie and one defeat.

Temple completed the worst year in its gridiron history, losing 25-0 to Boston University for a victoryless season. Villanova was dumped by Houston 26-14, making its season's record one win against eight defeats.

Penn rested up for its traditional Thanksgiving Day encounter with Cornell, Penn's last chance to avoid two successive all-loss seasons.

Scranton had its best fall in 17 years. Its 12-0 defeat of Albright this weekend gives it a six and one record.

On other grids across the state, California beat Edinboro, 20-0, Lycoming overcame Lebanon Valley, 25-7, Grove City was trampled under Bethany, 33-12, Gettysburg swamped Franklin and Marshall, 46-0, traditional rivals Haverford and Swarthmore slugged it out to Haverford's advantage, 13-6, and Bucknell lost to Delaware, 27-12. Carnegie Tech and Westminster postponed their clash to an undetermined date and West Liberty and Slippery Rock cancelled their contest.

Alquippa's game against Mount Lebanon was originally scheduled for last Saturday but was postponed when snow cut deeply in the weekend schedule.

Will Determine Contest

The other top postponed game, Coal Twp. against Swoyersville, a contest which Eastern Conference officials predict will go far in determining champions in both divisions, was to be played today.

Lower Merion, now boasting 22 consecutive wins, the longest major streak in the state, also plays a postponed game against undefeated Radnor on Thanksgiving.

In games played over the weekend, the Eastern Conference depends on the Thanksgiving Day games and the WPIAL AA on the outcome of Saturday's Alquippa-Mount Lebanon clash.

In the Catholic ranks, Shenandoah Catholic cooped the Northeastern Catholic Football Conference title by crushing Pottsville Nativity Catholic, 34-0.

LEADER RETURNS BARRIER REPORT TO COMMISSION

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader has rejected plans for extension of the controversial metal barrier as submitted by the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

The governor found the report was not complete and decided not to release details of it now. Thomas K. Hodges, the governor's press secretary reported today.

"He has returned it and asked the commission to do more work on it."

Agree To Extension

On Sept. 29 the governor announced the commission had agreed, subject to the money available, to extend the metal barrier which has been constructed at strategic points along the 360-mile cross state superhighway.

About 20 miles are now protected by such a barrier which some experts believe help prevent head-on accidents between vehicles moving in the opposite direction.

Various legislation introduced in both houses of the Legislature demanding further metal barriers

Vision Appears To Pius XII While Ill

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican announced today that Pope Pius XII saw a vision of Jesus Christ during the most critical moments of his grave illness last winter.

The recovery of the desperately ill pontiff began soon after.

The announcement was made by Luciano Casimir, chief of the Vatican press office, upon authorization of the papal secretariat of state. The secretariat normally would make such statement only with the personal authorization of the Pope.

Casimir told newsmen that they could state that "responsible Vatican circles" confirm the report of the vision published last week in Oggi (Today), the largest Italian weekly magazine.

Cargo Ship, Crew Goes Off Course

BOSTON (AP)—The Liberian cargo ship Daytona, with 24 men aboard, was feared lost today in raging seas about 75 miles off Gloucester.

The last word from the 322-foot vessel was at 9 a.m. EST yesterday when her skipper reported the ship was listing badly and taking in water.

Nearly 24 hours later the Coast Guard said: "There has been no further word from the vessel. Continuous search by surface craft has failed to locate the Daytona."

The Coast Guard said that loss of radio contact could mean either that the Daytona had sunk or that she had lost her power. The latter case would throw her ballast pumps out of operation.

The Daytona was loaded with gypsum and was heading from Nova Scotia to Philadelphia.

has been held up pending the commission report.

The governor said in September that the commission was studying the problem and would include in its report a schedule indicating the locations and telling what justification there was for construction at the chosen points.

At that time the governor said he expected to have the report "very soon." However, the report was completed by the turnpike staff and submitted last Tuesday. By the end of the week it was on the way back to the commission.

Turnpike spokesman declined to comment on the governor's action or to disclose any particulars contained in the report.

Sen. Wade (R-Cumberland), chairman of the House Highways Committee which has several barrier construction proposals under consideration, said all action will be delayed until the report matter is cleared up.

Proclamation

WHEREAS the appalling accident rate on public highways is a matter of immediate and serious concern to all citizens; and

WHEREAS nearly 200 national organizations have joined with the President's Committee for Traffic Safety in sponsoring the second nationwide "S-D Day"—Safe Driving Day — Thursday, December 1; and

WHEREAS it has been demonstrated that highway accidents can be reduced when motorists and pedestrians practice safe driving and safe walking;

WHEREAS the purpose of Safe-Driving Day is to demonstrate the necessity for year around public support of sound, proven, year-around traffic safety programs;

NOW THEREFORE, as burgess of Gettysburg, I, William G. Weaver, designate the first day of December "S-D Day"—Safe Driving Day and urge all citizens to practice safe driving, not only on that day—in daylight, dusk and darkness—but every day the year around, starting today.

London Derailment Causes 10 Deaths

MILTON, England (AP)—At least 10 persons were dead today and more than 100 injured after derailment of a Wales-to-London excursion train.

A search crew of more than 500 pulled the wreckage apart throughout the night, finding the bodies of nine women and one man.

Inside one of the three smashed coaches the searchers found an unidentified baby girl, only 6 or 8 weeks old. She had escaped with cuts on her head and chin.

More than 30 of the injured were in critical condition.

STOCKS ARE MIXED

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices were mixed today in the stock market, and trading was relatively quiet. Price changes were rather narrow. Railroads were out in front of the market today with a few good gains. Coppers were also higher. Chemicals were lower. The rest of the market was steady to mixed.

Want to know how to make garlic bread? Cut a clove of garlic into quarters; stir into half a cup of soft butter. Allow to stand until the butter takes up the garlic flavor. Cut a long loaf of French bread diagonally into thick slices; do not cut through the bottom of the loaf. Spread the garlic butter generously between the slices and over the top of the bread. Heat in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until hot — about 15 minutes.

BAGHDAD PACT NATIONS HOLD FIRST MEETING

By ALLAN JACKS

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—The first meeting of the five-nation Baghdad defense alliance — called to plan mutual defense against Communist aggression — opened today with an Iraqi pledge to aid any Soviet Union by name, and quickly passed on to the Palestine issue.

"This pact," he said, "has already taken the most important step toward providing for the security of the Middle East against the danger from the north. While bassadors W. J. Gallman and Adm. John H. Cassady joined the conference as observers after it voted them a formal invitation.

Gallman told the group the United States had announced support for the alliance on several occasions and that the presence of U.S. observers served as further evidence of such support.

Only Turkish Premier Adnan Menderes referred to the pact's aim of establishing a common defense against possible Russian aggression. He did not mention the Soviet Union by name, and quickly passed on to the Palestine issue.

"Arab-Israeli Dispute" He said the pact members all had the "duty to work for an equitable solution of this question."

Iranian Premier Hussein Alahmadi also brought up the Arab-Israeli dispute, saying Iran is prepared to do all possible to cooperate in reaching a just settlement.

Forming a link in a non-Communist security system that virtually circles the world, the pact brings together Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Pakistan along the Soviet Union's southern border from the Himalayas to the Black Sea.

Through Turkey, it connects with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to the west, and to the east, through Pakistan, with the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Macmillan at the opening session called for economic as well as military cooperation between the members of the pact.

He said the decision of the United States to send observers was welcomed by all members.

M. Dionne Suffers Siege Of Anemia

MONTREAL (CP)—Quintuplet Marie Dionne today was reported seriously ill with pernicious anemia.

The 21-year-old girl, who has been studying for religious orders, was brought here by a nurse last week to Notre Dame L'Esperance Hospital from Quebec City's convent of the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament.

we are thus gradually achieving progressive organization of the Middle East against the northern danger which threatens it. I cannot refrain from mentioning the question of Palestine which worries us all in view of the security and stability of this area."

Twelve Die On State Roads Attribute One Fatality To Snow; Two Violent Deaths

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twelve persons died in Pennsylvania over the weekend as the result of mishaps on the highways. At least one traffic death was attributed to the year's first snowstorm across the state.

Two others died violent deaths, one by asphyxiation and one in a fall down a flight of steps at the Philadelphia terminal of the Reading Co.

Two Philadelphians were killed Sunday night when their car veered out of control shortly after coming off the Benjamin Franklin Bridge from Camden, N. J., and rammed into a building. They were identified as Malford Green, 32, whom police said was the driver, and Andrew Funchess, 28, one of his passengers. Four others in the car were injured.

Killed On Rt. 860

Michael Silick of Nanty Glo was struck and killed by a car as he walked along Rt. 860 near Blairsville Sunday.

In another Sunday accident, James Price, 47, of Philadelphia was killed instantly when his car went out of control and smashed into a utility pole.

Charles J. Walters, 40, of Lansdale, died in a three car collision Saturday a few miles south of Sellersville. State police said Walters' car veered out of the northbound lane of Rt. 309, struck a truck and then another southbound car. His 39-year-old wife, Elva, was injured critically.

Thrown From Milk Truck

Warren Price, 26, Philadelphia, was thrown from his milk truck under the wheels of an automobile. Price was pronounced dead Saturday at Women's Medical College Hospital. He was an employee of the Oakland Farms Dairy of Phoenixville.

Harry Griffith, 83, Norristown, died in Montgomery Hospital, Norristown, six hours after he was struck by an automobile in Norristown Saturday.

Mrs. Margaret Oelkers, 60, New Braunfels, Tex., was killed Saturday when she was thrown out of the automobile in which she was riding after it crashed into an abutment on a slippery section of the Pennsylvania Turnpike near the Reading interchange. Physicians at Ephrata Hospital said she suffered a broken neck. Her husband, Alfred H. Oelkers, 70, suffered cuts and bruises.

William H. Thomas, 35, an engineer from Baton Rouge, La., was injured fatally Saturday when he fell down a flight of steps at the Philadelphia terminal of the Reading Co.

Mrs. Jan T. McGuire

Lucretia Borough, was asphyxiated Friday night when a gas heater in her bedroom went out as she slept police reported. She was found dead by her husband Saturday morning.

Albert Bender, 18, Mount Carmel, was killed Friday night when his car skidded off the Harrisburg-Gettysburg road about five miles north of Gettysburg, ran into another car, broke off a utility pole and went into a wooded patch.

The lone survivor was flown to Japan and hospitalized. The Air Force withheld all names.

Avoided Big Profit

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Dr. Paul Dudley White, Boston heart specialist, said yesterday with a smile that he could have made a "killing" on the stock market if he had taken advantage of his position as consultant on President Eisenhower's illness.

Dr. White said his first bulletin on the President's condition was estimated to have raised the value of stocks by two billion dollars.

"I took no advantage of that," he told a meeting of the brotherhood of Temple Emeth.

"If I had gone in the morning shaking my head sadly, and come out smiling, I could have made money that day."

ment of atomic energy.

Proclaims Necessity

He said:

Our position of eminence in the world could not have been achieved nor will it be possible to maintain it without the free enterprise incentive responsible for the plants, laboratories and facilities so vital to our security.

"As a nation we could not have succeeded in the grim wartime race and beaten our enemies to the building of the bomb without the vitality and ingenuity of American industry. No more can we succeed now in our determination to exploit atomic energy for peaceful purposes unless we have the same competitive resourcefulness which only free enterprise can provide."

Strauss said the AEC has spent about $24 million dollars a year in Pennsylvania for atomic projects, and added that the figure may rise to $30 million next year.

To Employ 7,000

An estimated six to seven thousand persons will be employed at the center when it is in full operation, company officials said.

Some 200 federal, state and area government officials toured the project at the flag-raising.

At a news conference before the ceremony, Hurley said hunting on the tract will be permitted during the deer season, except in the area business for its aid in the development around the installations. Over two thirds of the land will be open to hunters this year, he said, and the company plans to permit hunting in future years as much as security will allow.

SUPER CARRIER'S
DRY DOCK BUILT

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Ground was broken yesterday for a gigantic drydock to hold construction of the Navy's fifth super aircraft carrier of the Forrestal class.

The 60,000 ton vessel is scheduled for launching in about four years.

Sen. Smith (R-N.J.) was guest speaker at the ceremonies at the shipyard of the New York Shipbuilding Corp. He hailed construction of the carrier as "further evidence of the determination of the United States to keep the peace from a position of strength."

Smith told a crowd of several thousand visitors who toured the yard earlier in the day that the supercarriers "provide a highly mobile base for either defense or offense, as the need may arise."

Ground for the new drydock was broken by William Greenley, the building concern. He has been with oldest active employee of the shipyard 53 years.

The dock is to be 1,100 feet in length, one of the largest in the world.

York Woman Wins
$25,000 TV Prize

NEW YORK (AP)—A former Russian infantry woman netted $25,000 in consolation for her losing efforts in a $100,000 game of wits with Ret. Adm. Chester Nimitz and British Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery.

Mrs. Kyra Petrovskaya Shirk, a World War II officer, answered four parts of a six-part question about the Battle of the Bulge and the battle of the Coral Sea. The question was prepared by Nimitz and Montgomery, who acted as quiz wizards for the NBC-TV "Big Surprise" quiz show Saturday night.

She had to answer all six parts of the question to win the $100,000.

Mrs. Shirk married an American in Russia and now lives on a farm at York, Pa.

Russians And Satellites Will Launch Propaganda Drive Against Anti-Reds

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Amid efforts of both sides to keep the Geneva spirit breathing, a crucial cold war battle is shaping up. It is a long-term propaganda battle between two ways of life — to be fought with political economic and cultural weapons.

A reconstructed Communist International (Comintern) will wage the fight for the Soviet Union. The Comintern program is based on the premise of a military and diplomatic standoff between the two power blocs. The end of the Geneva conference in complete failure was the signal for the Red campaign to get up steam.

All this seems clear from recent statements of Soviet and satellite propaganda outlets. The campaign appears to have three major facets:

Three Offensives

1. A drive to increase Communist influence in all so-called colonial and backward areas.

2. A stepped-up drive among the working classes in all countries. It is from the working classes that the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU) whose directorate provides a new Comintern linking Moscow to parties throughout the world.

Pravda Sets Tone

3. A drive for "unity of the left." The Communists in countries like France, Germany and Japan will attempt to woo the far-left elements of Socialist parties into a united front to increase Communism.

nist power and influence in the parliaments.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper in Moscow, underscored this program in its review of prospects of communism at the time of the recent celebration of the Russian Revolution anniversary. The program was elaborated further in statements elsewhere, particularly in France, whose Red party is a bellwether for Western Communists.

While the "peace" partisan movement will be stepped up to demand retention of the "spirit of Geneva," the Communist parties will keep in mind the recent rallying cry of Pravda: "Our century is the century of the victorious march of communism."

Pravda told the Communists this meant continued "strengthening of the might of the Soviet Union and its defense capacities and training of Soviet people in a spirit of vigilance toward the machinations of the enemies of peace." The article directed Communists elsewhere to "quicken the pace of the national liberation movement in the colonies and the activation of the struggle of the working class for its rights in capitalist countries."

SEEK ALLEGED KIDNAPER OF YOUNG BRIDE

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — A 19-year-old bride of a week, missing since last Wednesday, was home today and police were searching for a former suitor charged by the girl's mother with kidnaping.

Attractive Maureen Maga showed up at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGuane, at nearby McDonald last night. She told her mother she was picked up by Gary Pounds, 22, also of McDonald.

Mrs. McGuane swore out a warrant by telephone before the warrant was issued, said:

"Whatever she said is right."

McDonald police chief Enoch Matthews said he expects Pounds to surrender. He said he will ask the FBI to investigate the case.

mother and police that she rode around in Pounds' car for four days. She said they drove into West Virginia and back.

The girl returned home last night accompanied by Pounds' brother, William, also of McDonald.

Police chief Matthews said "I have heard several conflicting stories. I advised Mrs. McGuane not to file the kidnap charge until we investigated further. But she insisted."

In ancient Babylonia and Assyria, brides were auctioned once a year in front of the temple, the price for beautiful girls being turned over to the less beautiful as dowries so that every girl eventually found a husband.

Nehru Tells Russians He Is In Camp Of Good Will

By HAROLD K. MILKS

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru told the top leaders of the Soviet Union last night that India is "in no camp and no military alliance." He said the only camp "we should like to be in is the camp of peace and good will."

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin followed with a speech at a state banquet in which he said the Soviet Union has "not lost hopes" as a result of the Big Four foreign ministers' deadlock at their Geneva conference.

Bulgarian said, "We are convinced it is by military pacts and alliances and by piling up armaments that world peace and security can be attained." The camp of peace and good will, he continued, "should include as many countries as possible and be opposed to none."

India Reds were invited for the first time to a state banquet given by Nehru for visiting dignitaries. Three Indian Communist party leaders attended with representatives of all other parties in Parliament.

Bulgarian said the Soviet Union wants to lessen international tension and "in the future wishes also to support this policy, no matter what might be the difficulties."

4 MEN, 1 WOMAN ROB AND BEAT 2 MEN IN PHILA.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A gang of five robbers, including one woman, stabbed and beat two men in Philadelphia shortly before midnight, then fled in a stolen automobile. But police captured them in suburban Media.

Roadblocks hastily erected near Delaware County forced the car, carrying the robber suspects at 80 miles an hour, to crash into the rear.

One of the police cars that blocked the road was struck by the speeding auto, but nobody was hurt.

Near Downtown

Police said the five members of the gang held up and beat Damas R. Ramor, 30, of Hatboro, and Charles Hightower, 36, of Camden, N.J. Both incidents — separately staged — occurred in the vicinity of 6th street and Fairmount Avenue, about a dozen blocks from downtown Market street.

Police said Ramor was seized as he walked on the street. He was robbed of $22 and a wrist watch, beaten about the head and stabbed with a knife in the back and side. Hightower stopped his car at a red light. With him was a friend, Dorothy Harris, 31, Philadelphia.

SENATOR FINDS M'CARRAN ACT DISCRIMINATORY

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-Mass.) introduced a bill last year to rewrite the act in part — including a revision of the national origins system for determining the immigration quotas assigned to other nations.

Under this system, adopted in the early 1920s and carried forward in the McCarran-Walter Act, each nation's quota is based on its contribution to the makeup of the U. S. population at the time of the 1920 census.

Asks New Base Year

Case urged that 1950, instead of 1910, be used as the base year for determining national quotas. He said this would "go a long way toward removing the senseless and serious discrimination against nationalities of southern and southeastern Europe."

He also recommended a pooling of unused quotas and their reallocation to Italy, Greece and other countries that oversubscribe their quotas.

Both of these proposals were rejected by Congress in adopting the McCarran-Walter Act, but Case said their approval would "allay the squeeze on countries presently discriminated against."

"Blatant" Discrimination

Kennedy, who released his prepared testimony yesterday, described the national origins formula as "perhaps the most blatant piece of discrimination in our na-

TREND SWINGS BACK TO OLD BABY METHODS

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
"What, use a pacifier?" Mrs. Reardon was shocked. "I thought pacifiers went out with hoop skirts."

Yes, they did go out of style, not so much with hoop skirts as with the ultra-scientific trend in baby feeding. However, in recent years there is a swing back to much that was good in the old ways.

There is a real place for a pacifier, with some babies. Properly used it can be a great help. There are lots of bad things you can do with a pacifier, too, so let's discuss how to use it well.

A baby has an urge to suck. Good old Mother Nature endowed him with this desire to make sure he'd get enough to eat. With most babies we come out even. When they've had enough sucking, they've also had enough to eat.

But with some babies we don't come out even. Some babies have less of an urge to suck than others. Tom was such a baby. He got all the sucking he needed in short order. Then he wouldn't suck anymore but he yelled with hunger. Tom was a bottle fed baby, so we just made the holes in his nipples larger so he could get enough milk before he was tired of sucking.

If he'd been a breast fed baby we would have started him on solids or given him more solids if he was already taking some.

Andy Reardon was a baby of the other sort. He had a terrific sucking urge. We had suggested to Mrs. Reardon that she get new nipples with smaller holes so that it would take Andy longer to get his milk. But even when we prolonged the feeding time to 40 minutes Andy still wanted to suck some more. He didn't want any more food, he just wanted to suck.

Solves Own Problem

Andy solved his own little problem by finding his thumb to suck on. His mother wasn't too pleased with this so I suggested she give Andy a pacifier immediately after he finished taking his milk. Lwr Andy get all the sucking he wants while he is a baby. If he satisfies his sucking needs on a pacifier, it will eventually disappear when he reaches the weaning stage and he will stop sucking because he has grown up to be old enough not to need it any longer.

If Andy finishes up his sucking on his thumb, the thumb doesn't disappear, and Andy is apt to go back to his thumb when he wants a little extra comfort.

A little thumb-sucking that continues on into childhood doesn't really matter very much, but we can avoid it by supplying some thing else to suck on, mothers are often happier.

Use It Thoughtfully
If you're going to use a pacifier, give it to your baby immediately after a meal. Let him finish up that sucking urge. Don't pop it into his mouth every time he cries. If you do this you're teaching him that sucking is the way to comfort. After this lesson is learned he's pretty apt to go after his thumb anytime he needs com-

GREECE'S FIRST LADY BRIGHTENS POLITICAL SCENE

By VASSO MINGOS

ATHENS (AP) — The new First Lady of Greece is a glamor girl, Amalia Karamanlis, 27, became "Mrs. President" when her husband, Public Works Minister Constantine Karamanlis, recently assumed the premiership vacated by the death of Marshal Papagos.

Needless to say, the Greeks are charmed with the beauty of the new Premier's wife, who ranks next to the Queen.

Although she has remained out of the spotlight up to now, Mrs. Karamanlis has the poise and assurance of one long accustomed to a family of politicians. She is a grand-niece of Demetrios Gounaris, former Greek Premier who was executed by a revolutionary junta in 1922. Her uncle, Panayotis Canellopoulos, was deputy premier and defense minister in the cabinet of the late Marshal Papagos.

Raised In Political Atmosphere
In her first interview after her husband's rise to power, "Mrs. President" said:

"I am very proud for my husband's sake. But to me personally it makes no difference, since I come from a family of politicians."

The Karamanlis home is a five-room flat in an Athens apartment building, and they intend to remain there. Mrs. Karamanlis says she plans to continue her activities as treasurer of a welfare organization which she describes as "a Greek counterpart of the Junior League." Her household duties, she believes, will take up the rest of her time.

Has A Prince Husband

The beautiful First Lady thinks of her tall, dark and handsome husband as a Prince Charming, adding: "Actually no exceeds that idea by far."

She likes American movies, specifying:

"My preference goes to westerns, gangster films and other such thrillers. I shun dramas and realistic films. There is enough drama in our lives in the daytime. Why fill our nights with it?"

The favorite hobby of the new First Lady, however, is reading. She says:

"I own something like 1,000 books acquired through the years, since my childhood days. Most are by modern authors. I didn't have to buy any of the classics and books about art. I could borrow those from my father's library, which numbers 20,000 volumes."

"Mrs. President" speaks English, French and German. With her husband, she has traveled almost all over the world, but has never visited the United States.

"My one dream is to visit the States some day."

Makes Hobby Of Jungle Dwellers

IMMOKALEE, Fla. (AP) — Ollie Hancock captures poisonous snakes for excitement and wild orchids for pleasure during his spare time.

Although the hobbies sound poles apart, he explains that he can do both at once, because the reptiles and flowers are found in the same jungle-like woods in this area.

ONE OF A KIND

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — A well dressed stranger stepped into police headquarters and asked if there were any prisoners serving terms because they could not pay fines. The answer was yes.

He asked the desk lieutenant to pick out one at random. The stranger paid the prisoner's fine and departed. The bailor and the bailee did not meet.

Police Lieutenant J. P. Farry said the incident was the only one of its kind in his 23 years of experience.

CHICKENS LEAVE CLUE

HOBES, N. M. (AP) — When Jack Jackson reported chicken thieves had raided his hen house, an officer was assigned to investigate. His report read: "Found feathers. Unable to locate any chickens to go with same."

Holiday-ers Flock To Kashmir Valley

SRINAGAR, Kashmir (AP) — Kashmir, despite political unrest and the unsettled Indian-Pakistan dispute for its control, is still India's top tourist attraction. A record 40,000 tourists visited Kashmir valley last season. There were only 1,400 foreigners, the rest Indians.

It has been the Queen of summer resorts in India for 40 years. It was first discovered by the Mogul emperors. The British preferred nearby, easily-accessible Simla, 200 miles north of Delhi, for their summer capital; but went to Srinagar for a real holiday.

More than 22,000 vessels a year go through the Sault Ste. Marie locks on the Great Lakes every year.

The 1956 Buick SPECIAL 4-Door Riviera

THIS ONE is the news-maker that's front-page big.

This one is the new Buick SPECIAL for 1956 — the biggest bundle of high-powered energy and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

Just a quick listing of some certain facts will give you the picture.

First—its engine is a big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with an all-time high in horsepower for this Series—and an engine that hits the record book at a neat 8.9 to 1 compression ratio.

Second—its getaway—with the double-action take-off of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflo— is spectacular even at only part throttle—and comes with a new boost in gas mileage to boot.

Third—on ride, this new SPECIAL is more than great—what with all-coil springing, and torque-tube stability, and a new deep-oil cushioning, and a whole new front-end geometry that adds a wonderful "sense of direction" to the car's travel.

Fourth—on room, luxury, interior finish—there's never been a Buick SPECIAL like this before. From the big, broad seats to the stunning new instrument panel—there's new decorator smartness and quality throughout.

But get the picture on price, and you have the biggest reason why this sizable automobile is so extra special a buy.

For this Buick comes to you at a figure so close to those of the most widely known smaller cars, the difference in price is small change.

AWAITS PASSAGE OF EXCISE TAX FOR PRODUCERS

HARRISBURG (P)—Speaker Andrew (D-Cambria) flatly predicted today early House passage of Gov. Leader's proposal for a 3½ per cent manufacturers' excise tax.

"I fully expect the bill will pass the House," he told a newsman in joining the governor in pinpointing Wednesday as the target date for sending the measure to the GOP-controlled Senate.

Strong indications pointed to Senate Republicans providing the necessary votes to pass the tax but by no means was there any agreement to accept the measure as now drafted.

Signs Measure

Rep. Readinger, House Democratic floor leader, already has signed his name to the measure which would raise an expected $27 million between the effective date, next Jan. 1, and May 31, 1957.

Democratic leaders, in an obvious move to get the tax bill in the hands of the Senate GOP before Thanksgiving, brought about actual printing of the measure prior to introduction.

Rep. Smith, House Republican floor leader, criticized the speed with which the Democrats hope to whip the tax bill through the House in the minimum of three days required by law.

"The Republican members of the House will never agree to any plan to steamroller this new tax through the Legislature and will insist that the Legislature take all the time that is necessary to consider this all-important legislation," said Smith.

He told a newsman after meeting with GOP leaders yesterday that the contents of the tax bill should be aired "for all of the state to know and understand."

The tax issue was expected to shunt into the background the calendar of routine bills in both the House and Senate when the lawmakers return to their desks during the day.

Needs 106 Democrats

Readinger must have at least 106 Democrats in their seats in the House to meet the Democratic timetable to pass the tax bill in the House finally in a post-midnight session early Wednesday.

That's the number of votes needed to suspend a House rule to permit initial action on the measure on the day it is approved by a committee. The suspension is expected to be opposed by the GOP.

Readinger said the timetable would have to be abandoned if there is "any substantial opposition" to the tax bill in his party's caucus.

Democratic leaders devised party strategy during a conference with the governor last night.

Yields Unbalanced Revenue

The strategy was reportedly based on a contention that the manufacturers' excise levy at 3½ per cent would yield no more revenue than a 1 per cent retail sales tax—with food as the only exemption—after ordinary wholesale and retail price markups.

Mahany and Sen. Pechan (R-Armstrong), who have hinted they may vote for the excise levy described that measure as "a hidden sales tax."

The governor is pledged against re-enactment of the sales tax which expired last Aug. 31. He had sought a classified income tax to raise $11 million dollars to balance the budget but Senate Republicans scuttled it.

"Face Saving" Device

Mahany said the manufacturers' excise was merely a "face-saving" device put forth by the governor which would result in consumers paying an additional cost for merchandise.

It was Mahany's claim that the system of pyramiding such a hidden tax as a result of the trade policy of fixed percentage markups would result in a consumer paying more for an item than the actual tax collected.

Pechan said he would vote for the tax bill provided "it doesn't hurt Pennsylvania industry."

The excise tax bill, as ready for introduction, calls for exemptions only on food and food products. The federal and state government would pay no tax but there is nothing in the measure to prevent the levy from applying to goods purchased by local municipalities.

The State Revenue Department would be given broad powers to administer the law and devise regulations.

Trace Wood Fragment To Sunken Illinois

EAGLE HARBOR, Mich. (P)—A rotting chunk of wood is all that remains of one of the proud steamship Illinois, famed as the first ship to pass through the Soo Locks 100 years ago.

The 90-foot long piece of wood, apparently a cross beam, was found near the tip of upper Michigan's northernmost point, the Keweenaw Peninsula.

The Illinois, which passed through the locks in 1855, went down in 1864 after striking a reef outside Eagle Harbor.

SIDNEY, Ohio (P)—Part of one of the first air conditioning systems in the United States was dismantled by the Peoples Federal Savings and Loan Association here.

The original conditioner, being given modern improvements, was installed when the bank was built in 1917—an idea of the Chicago architect, Louis Sullivan. It used rain water from the roof of the building. City water will be used in the more modern system.
